Selected Linux network services (code: LX-103)

Overview

A continuation of the course in Linux system administration. This training explores configuration of selected most popular Linux network services.

Ask for details

Phone +44 203 608 6289
info@alx.training

Duration

2 days

Agenda

1. IPTables - firewall:
   — how to configure;
   — a simple NAT;
   — typical settings.
2. Apache:
   — configuring Apache (virtual servers, interesting modules and more).
   — access control - simple authorization, IP control
   — handling PHP
3. Samba - integration with MS Windows:
   — theory;
   — server configuration;
   — client programs;
4. Secure remote access:
   — SSH and SFTP servers

Target audience and prerequisites

Basic familiarity with Linux, ability to use the command shell, familiarity with basics of TCP/IP networks.

Certificates

Course participants receive completion certificates signed by ALX.

Locations

— Online (English) – your home, office or wherever you want
— Warsaw (English) – Jasna 14/16A
— any other location (London, UK, EU) on request

Price

740 EUR

The price includes:

— course materials,
— snacks, coffee, tea and soft drinks,
— course completion certificate,
— one-time consultation with the instructor after course completion.